InfoMentis Expands Team To Further Enhance Company's Position in the Skills Training & Consulting Industry.

InfoMentis, Inc. announced today that Gary Hockwater and Ken Barwick have joined the InfoMentis team as Principals. "We are pleased that Gary and Ken have agreed to join our team," said Wendy Reed, CEO of InfoMentis. "Through their distinguished careers they have excelled in their respective positions, and we look to that wealth of experience to enhance their positions with InfoMentis."

"Gary and Ken are excellent additions to the InfoMentis team." said Steve Maul, EVP of Delivery Services. "Gary's and Ken's extensive experience provides them with a deep understanding of the strategic vision and teamwork necessary to drive InfoMentis forward."

Gary Hockwater is a 25-year veteran with extensive corporate Business, Finance and Sales Support experience within Fortune 500 companies. Based in Rochester, New York, Gary's mission is to provide outstanding project management and support services to InfoMentis clients worldwide. Prior to joining InfoMentis, Gary spent nine years at Electronic Data Systems (EDS), holding positions such as Financial Analyst, Sales Support and Project Management. His broad-based business experience also includes multiple positions at Xerox Corporation encompassing Benefits Administration, Global Financial Reporting, and ERP Implementation. Gary started his career at Computer Consoles Incorporated (CCI) where he held multiple financial positions involving General Ledger, Financial Reporting, and Financial Analysis.

Ken Barwick brings more than 25 years of high tech industry leadership and management consulting expertise. Prior to joining InfoMentis, Ken was a founding partner of an Atlanta-based management consulting firm where he provided management consulting services and interim operational leadership for both investment firms and high tech software companies. As President and COO for RedCelsius, Inc. he refocused an emerging professional services organization into a customer relationship management (CRM) software company. Ken has held a number of key leadership positions in the high tech industry such as Executive Vice President at Firstwave Technologies, Senior Vice President for the Americas, Dun & Bradstreet Software (DBS), President/CEO at SysGen Systems (acquired by Integral Systems), where he lead turnaround activities of this mid-market ERP applications company, and as Vice President and General Manager for Management Science America (MSA) he headed one of the company's nine worldwide field organizations, where he orchestrated record-breaking growth in both enterprise application software licenses and professional services revenues.
